Guitar player

My name is František Zelenka. I started to play the guitar two years ago. It was hard, but I am a better player now. My ambition is being a guitar player. I want to be a good guitarist. I want to be as good as Jimi Hendrix. Jimi Hendrix was the best guitar player for me. He experimented with electric guitar and his songs were breakthrough. He sang primarily about the Vietnam war how it was terrible. In year nineteen-seventy he was on the top of glory but He was poisoned from drugs.

Today He is in our hearts and memories as an excellent guitarist and composer, who gave a new style of music to the World.

Lillian Jackson Braun writes books about a cat Koko which has got a detective talent. Erin Hunterová writes about cats, which live the same life like humans. And Julia Jarmanová writes about a cat, which can travel to the past.
